

たしざんを なぞって こたえをかきましょう。はっぱにもいろをぬりましょう。

Tracing practice for numbers 2, 6, and 8. The first set shows two rows of leaves: the top row has 5 green leaves and the bottom row has 5 white leaves. The second set shows two rows of leaves: the top row has 5 orange leaves and the bottom row has 5 white leaves. The third set shows two rows of leaves: the top row has 3 green leaves and the bottom row has 2 orange leaves. Below the leaves are stroke order diagrams for the numbers 2, 6, and 8. Each number is shown in blue with dashed lines and numbered arrows indicating the starting point and direction of the stroke. The number 8 is shown in pink.

Tracing practice for numbers 9, 1, and 10. The first set shows two rows of leaves: the top row has 5 green leaves and the bottom row has 5 white leaves. The second set shows two rows of leaves: the top row has 1 orange leaf and the bottom row has 5 white leaves. The third set shows two rows of leaves: the top row has 5 green leaves and the bottom row has 5 orange leaves. Below the leaves are stroke order diagrams for the numbers 9, 1, and 10. Each number is shown in blue with dashed lines and numbered arrows indicating the starting point and direction of the stroke. The number 10 is shown in pink.

Tracing practice for numbers 1, 3, and 4. The first set shows two rows of leaves: the top row has 1 green leaf and the bottom row has 5 white leaves. The second set shows two rows of leaves: the top row has 3 orange leaves and the bottom row has 5 white leaves. The third set shows two rows of leaves: the top row has 3 green leaves and the bottom row has 2 orange leaves. Below the leaves are stroke order diagrams for the numbers 1, 3, and 4. Each number is shown in blue with dashed lines and numbered arrows indicating the starting point and direction of the stroke. The number 4 is shown in pink.

Tracing practice for numbers 5, 2, and 7. The first set shows two rows of leaves: the top row has 5 green leaves and the bottom row has 5 white leaves. The second set shows two rows of leaves: the top row has 2 orange leaves and the bottom row has 5 white leaves. The third set shows two rows of leaves: the top row has 5 green leaves and the bottom row has 2 orange leaves. Below the leaves are stroke order diagrams for the numbers 5, 2, and 7. Each number is shown in blue with dashed lines and numbered arrows indicating the starting point and direction of the stroke. The number 7 is shown in pink.